

Moving Through at Annapolis Valley Regional Library

Angela J. Reynolds, Community Engagement Coordinator, Annapolis Valley Regional Library

Our library, Annapolis Valley Regional Library, has been working on a project called Moving Through. We have hosted staff knowledge sharing events, as well as a Gathering on September 4.

Using the principles of the Truth and Reconciliation Calls to Action, and the guiding themes of the Nova Scotia Culture Action Plan, Moving Through incorporates Indigenous ways of knowing and doing to the development of programs, library spaces, and materials. This helps build relationships between Annapolis Valley Regional Library (AVRL) and three area First Nations communities of Annapolis Valley, Bear River, and Glooscap, and strengthens literacy connections for local Indigenous families. Here's our website for further exploration of the project.
