News from Newfoundland and Labrador Public Libraries

Rachel Head, Literacy Services Librarian, Newfoundland and Labrador Public Libraries

LinkedIn Learning Meets Community Enrichment: Newfoundland and Labrador Public Libraries Lead the Way

Newfoundland and Labrador Public Libraries (NLPL) is proud to announce the launch of LinkedIn Learning! This online education tool brings a wealth of professional and personal development courses to people with library cards.

NLPL's partnership with LinkedIn Learning marks a significant step forward in providing free, accessible and high-quality educational resources to library patrons across the province. This integration offers patrons the opportunity to cultivate valuable skills, enhance career prospects, and embark on personal development journeys, all from the convenience of their fingertips.

LinkedIn Learning's vast and diverse collection of expert-led courses includes topics on business, technology, creative tools, leadership, and much more. NLPL ensures that library patrons across the province have access to dynamic and up-to-date content, enabling them to stay relevant in today's fast-paced world.

To access LinkedIn Learning and take advantage of the wealth of educational opportunities it offers, people can visit the LinkedIn Learning website, or Download the LinkedIn Learning app on their Android or Apple iOS device. To sign in with a library card, users should enter the Library ID "NLPL", and then use their library card barcode number and four-digit library PIN. All residents of Newfoundland and Labrador can register for a free library card online, or in person at their local library.

Stay tuned about NLPL's online services like LinkedIn Learning by following Newfoundland and Labrador Public Libraries on social media platforms, including Facebook, Instagram, and Twitter.