

News from New Brunswick

Mathieu Lanteigne, APLA VP New Brunswick

UNB Libraries

Jeannie Bail will be joining UNB Libraries (Fredericton) in early December as the Director of Learning & Research Services. Jeannie holds a Master of Science, Library and Information Science, from the Pratt Institute, NY, as well as a law degree from the Brooklyn Law School. She is currently the Information Services Librarian at the QEII Library, Memorial University of Newfoundland (MUN), and has previously been Special Collections Librarian, Copyright Coordinator, and Business Liaison Librarian at MUN. Her experience is both broad, having worked in corporate, law, and academic library contexts, as well as deep. Her work with various information services, library instruction, special collections, copyright, collections development and project management will serve UNB well.

Bibliothèque de droit Michel-Bastarache (Université de Moncton)

Jeanne Maddix retired on August 1st, 2016, after 11 years as Director of the Université de Moncton's Bibliothèque de droit Michel-Bastarache. Jeanne has also served twenty years as City Librarian at the Moncton Public Library. Throughout her career, Jeanne has been a dedicated member of many professional associations, namely APLA, NBPLA and CALL/ACBD. Please join us in wishing Jeanne a very happy retirement!